Amature Spiritual Singers To Sing At Galilee Sunday

The Amature Spiritual Singers of Amherst will render a musical program at the Galilee Baptist Church this Sunday evening at 3 p.m. The program is sponsored by the church. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

A very large crowd attended the regular preaching service at the Promise Land Baptist Church last Sunday. The pastor delivered a very challenging message. The Senior Choir rendered beautiful music. Immediately following the morning message, the Holy Communion was served. All present enjoyed the service.

The annual church meeting of the Promise Land Baptist Church was held last Saturday at 12 p.m. The summary of the year was given by the financial secretary and the treasurer. The report was well received by all present. The program of work was presented. Several objectives were set up for the new year. All officers who served the church last year accepted to serve again except the sexton. Mr. Robert G. Fleshman was elected as sexton.

A very large crowd attended the funeral services last Tuesday for the late Mrs. Jessie Haskins Davis at the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church. Mrs. Davis was a faithful member of the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church which was her home church. She married the Rev. Wesley Davis of Amherst and were faithfully in the churches that her husband pastored. The following ministers from Amherst took an active part in paying tributes to the life of the decease: Reverends J. W. Paige, J. P. Rose, H. W. Pryor, C. J. Davenport, R. E. McCray, E. D. Irving and Roger Ford. The Rev. J. W. Paige served as master of ceremony and the Rev. Irving delivered the eulogy. The Rev. R. Q. Lawing conducted the committal service. Beautiful music was rendered by members of the home church and friends of the family. Interment was held in the church cemetery. Bland Reid Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Dorothy Pannell is improving in the Lynchburg General Marshall Ledge Hospital after undergoing surgery.

Funeral rites for the late Edward M. Tibbs, oldest son of Mrs. Lacy Tibbs, and the late Tom Tibbs, were held at the Galilee Baptist Church last Saturday at 2 p.m. with the Rev. R. Q. Lawing officating and delivering the eulogy. The following order of service was followed: Processional, Opening Hymn, Choir, Scripture and Prayer, Minister; Hymn, Choir; Acknowledgements, Minister; Obituary and Eulogy, Minister; Solo, Mr. Tim Lawing; Recessional Choir. The choir was composed of choir members from Galilee and First Baptist. The floral designs were in large numbers. Interment was held in the community cemetery. The West Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Out-of-town relatives and friends who attended the funeral of the late Mr. Tibbs were Mr. Jim Tibbs and Miss Lillian of Baltimore, Md., Mr. James O'Connor of Brooklyn, N.Y.; Mrs. Cordina Tibbs of Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Mickey Clarke of Chicago and Mr. Emmamuel Kelly of Philadelphia, Pa. and Mrs. V. D. Ferguson and daughter of Baltimore, Md.

Regular preaching service will be held at the Zion Baptist Church this Sunday morning at 11 a.m. At 3 p.m. installation of all church officers including all auxiliaries will make up the program. The Rev. Bernard Davis will deliver the sermon of installation.

The senior usher board of the Zion Baptist Church held its regular meeting last Sunday at 11 a.m. with Mrs. Alma B. Robertson presiding. Mrs. Nannie Johnson, secretary, recorded the minutes. The pastor, Rev. Hankins, was present and spoke to us on the work of ushers. The meeting was very helpful. Two new members joined the board.

Mr. Clarence Gray died at his home here Saturday. Funeral service will be held on Wednesday at 2 p.m. The Rev. James Franklin will be in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Allen attend the special banquet given at the Roanoke Civic Center recently.

All officers, members and friends are cordially invited to attend the regular preaching service at the Galilee Baptist Church this Sunday at 11 a.m.

Second Annual Virginia Pork Festival

The Bicentennial Celebration of the Second Annual Virginia Pork Festival will be held on June 2, 1976, 3 to 8 p.m., at the Greensville County Ruritan Club Grounds, Emporia, Va. Tickets for the festival are only $3.00 each. The bearer of this ticket is entitled to all he or she can eat of a dozen and more Pork Delights while on the gorunds as well as compete for ham and pork product drawings held every thirty minutes during the festival. Order your tickets now. Write or call Virginia Pork Festival Headquarters, 405 Halifax St., Emporia, Va. 23847, phone 804-634-9662. The festival is endorsed by the Greensville - Emporia Bicentennial Committee and local, civic and educational organizations.

In an effort to make the festival "bigger and better" a beauty contest will be held this year to select a Pork Festival Queen (girls age 18 through 21) and a Pork Festival Princess (girls age 14 through 17). The girls eligible must be from families who are actively involved in the production of pork. Additional information on the beauty contest may be obtained from the festival headquarters.

Over two thousand persons attended the 1975 festival and another 400 persons were involved in its planning, preparation and implementation. All were well pleased with its success and feel it is well established as an annual event bringing recognition to an industry that is worth nearly one-half billion dollars in Virginia alone. Come out and make this festival the best one yet! The '76 festival has been designated a recognized bicentennial activity by the Virginia Independance Bicentennial Commission.

If you did not see a volunteer from the Mothers March For Dimes on Sunday, send in your donation to Mrs. Crawford Davidson, Chairman, Appomattox County March of Dimes.

The current dean's list represents 16% of the student body.

Longwood College, founded in 1839, is a four-year state-supported college offering majors in more than 30 areas, including professional training for teaching and social work, and pre-professional programs in the health sciences. In addition to its extensive undergraduate program, the college offers masters degrees in education and English.

Among the students from this area are Mary Louise Parris of Appomattox |Mary Parris was one of 50 students who made 4.0 or all A's); Winifred Lee Agee, of Appomattox; Anita Lynn Glover, of Pamplin; Susan Jennings Wilkerson, of Appomattox.

Park Historian Speaker At Annual U.D.C. Dinner Meeting

The Appomattox Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy held its annual Lee - Jackson - Maury dinner Thursday evening, January 15 at Maudes Restaurant in Appomattox.

Guest speaker for the dinner meeting was Mr. Ronald G. Wilson, Historian at Appomattox Court House National Historical park, who presented a program on Robert E. Lee, The West Point Cadet.

Mr. Wilson emphasized the high scholastic and moral achievements attained by Robert E. Lee while attending the United States Military Academy between 1825 and 1929. He also pointed out that Colonel Lee returned to West Point as its Superintendent from 1852 to 1855 and how his time spent at West Point rounded out his training as an administrator and gave him experience in dealing with people.

Mrs. Lena Eversole, President of the local chapter, presided at the meeting and Mrs. Rachel Lawson, Mrs. Cliff Plunkett, and Mrs. Walter Ferrell were in charge of arrangements for the dinner.

Wreck Island Extension Homemakers Club

Mrs. Louise Lawson was hostess to the Wreck Island Extension Homemakers Club when it met at her home on Wed., Jan. 21, at 1:30 p.m. There were 11 members in attendance.

One new member, Miss Edna Adcock, was welcomed to the club.

Devotions and prayer were led by Mrs. Frances Dyess, reading Matt. 26:36-42.

The minutes were read and approved and the treasurer gave her report. A business session was conducted by our president, Mrs. V.A. Staten.

A leader training meeting will be held at the extension office on Thursday, Jan. 29, on "Selecting Upholstry Fabrics".

The 1976 Handbooks were distributed to members and filled in for the year.

Members contributed to "Nickels For National".

The Homemakers' Creed was repeated. Mrs. V. A. Staten gave a demonstration on hanging, framing and matting pictures. Afterwhich, a social hour was held and the hostess served delious refreshments.

For the February meeting a demonstration on "Family Life" will be given by Mrs. Marie Carson on Feb. 18th. Topic - "Selecting Uphostry Fabrics." The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Carson at 1:30 p.m.

Meeting Set Saturday To Organize Exchange Club

The Exchange Club of Lynchburg is interested in and actively engaging in forming an Exchange Club in Appomattox. In this Bicentennial Year, Appomattox is a fitting place to form a new Exchange Club to serve the community.

Exchange is a nationwide service club that emphasizes Americanism, God and Country, Crime Prevention, and Youth Activities. The Clubs work in their community to foster these ideals and provide fellowship and community concern in carrying out projects. The Exchange motto is "Unity For Service".

A meeting will be held at 7:30 a.m., Saturday, January 31 at Maude's Restaurant. The purpose of the meeting will be to present to interested persons in the area what Exchange is and how a club can be formed. Come out Saturday morning and hear what Exchange has to offer you and your community.
